Pre-University Fitness Screening

About the Service

The pre-university fitness screening is a service provided to students that are attending universities in the UAE and scholarships outside, and it enables university students to request fitness medical certificate by undergoing medical examination that includes risk assessment, visual examination, and other lab tests.

Service Process

- For Governmental Universities listed under NAPO in the Ministry of Education: Register in the NAPO digital-services, Create a user name and password (If not yet registered), and loginComplete electronic medical history in the NAPO account.An SMS Or Email will be received from the Ministry of Education to complete the medical examination procedures, and to select the facility to do the vision and lab test.visit the health center for the service.An SMS message \ Email will be sent stating the completion of the transaction and the issuance of the certificate.

- For Private or Other universities: Register to the EHS digital-services, Sing in using the UAE Pass and login.Complete the electronic medical history, & pay the associated fees on the Emirates Health Services' portal.Make an appointment at the primary health care centers of the Emirates Health Services through the patient portal or contact the nearest primary health care center.Proceed to the appointment with the required documents (ID/ Passport).An SMS message & Email will be sent stating the completion of the transaction and the issuance of the certificateCollect certificate through your account in EHS portal.

Service Fees

Free for Applicants through NAPO.

250 dirhams for those applying through the Emirates Health Services "EHS".