

Communicable Disease Consultation

About the Service

This service enables patients suffering from communicable disease and their close contact to receive the health counseling to learn how to deal with the infectious disease and protect the health of those that are of close contact with the patient.

Service Process

- Book an appointment to receive the service.
- Register for entry at the reception.
- Assess the case, and attend the doctor.
- Receive the required consultation, and instructions from the doctor.
- Proceed to the pharmacy to receive the medication "If needed".

Service Fees

Free